Postlude

We believe that because of God's love, Christ is really present in, with, and under the bread and wine--wanting to touch your life. We invite you to come forward and receive communion (or a blessing).

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

L: God, we come together in prayer, lifting all needs both known and unknown...
(pause for silence)

L: God of the changing seasons, you give abundant blessings and provide for all our needs. We give thanks for your good gifts. With prayers of gratitude we pray for...
(all are invited to give their own prayers of thanks either out loud or silently)

L: Together we pray,
C: Lead us by your grace.

L: God of all the nations, draw to yourself all the people of the world, emboldening them to strive for peaceful and just solutions to conflict. We pray for your presence...
(all are invited to give their own prayers for our community or nation either out loud or silently)

L: Together we pray,
C: Lead us by your grace.

L: God of creation, you tend to the earth and all of the many kinds of life that you loved into being. Restore your people as caretakers of animals and plants that we might be mindful of the generations to come. We pray for...
(all are invited to give their own prayers for the world either out loud or silently)

L: Together we pray,
C: Lead us by your grace.

L: God of peace, you promise life and wholeness to those who wait patiently for you, and you fear those who cry out to you for help. Restore us and bring us into the joy of your presence. We especially pray for...
(The liturgist will give some names , and then all are invited to give their own prayers for personal needs or on behalf of others either out loud or silently)

L: Together we pray,
C: Lead us by your grace.

L: God our creator, redeemer, and sustainer, reveal your will as you receive our prayers and conform our ways to your ways; through the saving work of Jesus Christ our Lord.

AMEN
