

God is happy when you are doing nice things! Like helping at home, being good to your brothers and sisters (I know that can be hard right now.), and following the rules. Draw a line to the happy face or the sad face and show if these things would make God happy or sad.

1) I helped my parents clean up the house.

2) I called someone a mean name.

3) I said prayers for those who are sick.

4) I did not share with my brothers or sisters.

5) I did share my new toy with my brother or sister.

I know it is not easy to follow the rules all the time, or be nice all the time, we all make mistakes. We must try our best to do what we think will make God happy! What should we say if we make someone sad, or break the rules? I am sorry. Remember that God loves you even when you make a mistake. God loves you for just being you!
